Styling and Product Mix Makes Ashley a Style Star

Ashley Greene slipped into a revealing dress this week in West Hollywood, but her legginess wasn't the only thing catching our attention. Unlike her recent bouffant 'dos, Ashley was rocking a glass-like mahogany curtain.

If you need to get some shine going on like this New Moon star, there's one way to beat out even the most advanced serum boosters. Liquid Keratin might take more energy, but the results are worth it.

This product isn't cheap at $69, but the kit gives you a 30-Day supply of treatment solution, shampoo, and conditioner, and you'll see results on air-dried hair weeks after the treatment. If you're craving Ashley Greene-style hair for more than just one night, this is the ticket.

After shampooing your hair with the Liquid Keratin shampoo, you spray on the smoothing treatment on damp hair and then air-dry and blow-dry. After 48 hours, you will rinse and style away, hopefully with smoother results.

While you admire your hair, think about Kristen Stewart, who must be dying with Ashley Greene looking this good...especially since she has a mullet.

Are you a Twilight fan? If so, here are some great pics of the cast on the set of New Moon!
